BARRIERS
Provide a description of any barriers that prevented parents from participating during the previous school year. Describe the steps the school will take for the coming school year to overcome these barriers (with attention to parents/families with disabilities, limited English speakers, students living in unstable housing situations, and parents/families of migrant children) [ESEA Section 1116].
Barriers Areas	Plan of Action (Steps)
Homelessness	1. Through Project Upstart, the school will ensure that families are identified and provided support if experiencing homelessness. 2. In order to provide educational stability, the school will support the family with wrap around services to ensure that they have access to transportation, food, clothing and school supplies. 3. The school will pair the family with an educational liaison that will work closely with families to ensure that they address academic needs, tutoring and opportunities to participate in extracurricular activities. 4. The school will actively engage parents, encouraging them to be involved in their child's education. 5. The school will regularly review and evaluate the support being
Work Scheduling Conflict	1. Begin by surveying parents to understand the scheduling conflicts parents are facing. 2. Establish clear and accessible communication channels, such as Class Dojo, Parent portal, social media, email to keep parents informed about school events, important dates and schedule changes. 3. Offer flexible scheduling options for parent-teacher conferences, meeting and school events that might include, evenings, weekends or virtual meetings. 4. Encourage parents to become involved in EESAC so they can be an integral part of the school community.
PARENT AND FAMILY FEEDBACK
Each year, our school encourages parents and families to work in collaboration with the school to develop, review, and revise the Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). The PFEP is a tool that is used to determine how well our school is partnering with you and promoting your involvement in your child's education throughout the school. Your feedback is important in helping us in continually improving the PFEP and the parent and family engagement program at our school. We have provided contact information below so that you can learn about the different ways you can be a part of this home school connection. Thank you!
